Neutering News

Saving Lives Around the World

Neutering is at the heart of everything we do. It is the only humane and lasting way to stop the endless cycle of suffering. Every dog or cat spayed or neutered means fewer animals born into hardship, fewer on the streets and fewer facing starvation or cruelty. It may not be the most popular topic on our social media, but it is definitely the most important.

In Romania, in partnership with Oravița City Hall and the Spay and Neuter for Hope Mobile Clinic, our incredible Dr Razvan has been carrying out vital neutering work in an area so desperately in need of help. Alongside the operations, our team has taken food to dogs in recovery and supported a kind local lady who is caring for those who need extra attention after surgery. Our volunteers have continued driving around feeding street dogs, making sure they are not forgotten. This work never stops, and thanks to your support, it never will.

In Peru, our wonderful team has been working overtime with 238 dogs and cats neutered in our latest campaign and many have also received medical care. Our community support also continues to grow: two women kindly opened their homes to foster strays after surgery and several families have adopted animals who once lived on the streets.

In July, we travelled to Lasi in Romania for our monastery neuter campaign, joined by our patron Wendy Turner-Webster. It was a long and exhausting weekend in the mountains but an incredibly important one. The nuns at the monastery were welcoming and supportive throughout, helping wherever they could. Our vet team worked tirelessly to neuter dogs and cats and give vital care to animals who would otherwise have no help. Each operation prevents future suffering and makes a real difference in the community. We were delighted that Wendy could join us. She spent the weekend supporting the team, meeting the animals and helping to raise awareness of the work we do. Her presence was a real boost for everyone involved.

Our next neutering campaign begins in Ukraine on 5th October. The need there is immense, with countless stray animals in desperate conditions. Our dedicated team will begin neutering and providing medical help, just as they have in Romania and Peru.

To all our supporters who make these campaigns possible... THANK YOU! Your generosity funds and every bit of help for the animals we reach. Wherever they live, animals need us and together we are making a difference. Spaying and neutering will always be our number one mission. Fluffy: Britain's most overlooked dog? PLEASE HELP US TO GIVE FLUFFY THE HOME SHE DESERVES!

Fluffy's journey began in Romania where she was found abandoned by the side of a road with her pup. Tragically, her pup was struck and killed by a car right in front of her. Left alone and confused, she waited for the person who had dumped her but they never returned. Rescued by Paws2Rescue, she was taken to a shelter in Romania before making her way to the UK. She was adopted once but sadly returned and has been waiting for almost 4 years for her happy ending. She's one of those dogs who makes an impression straight away: full of personality and full of love. Around seven years old, she's a strong, confident girl who needs someone active and outdoorsy who can give her the steady home she deserves.

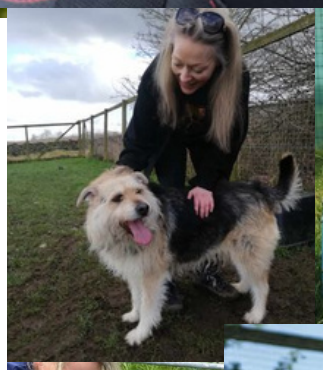

Fluffy is housetrained, walks well on the lead, is happy in the car, absolutely adores human company and is great off lead with other dogs of all shapes and sizes. She is currently in boarding kennels in Manchester where she has become a big hit with the staff. One of our team has completely fallen in love with her and visits her regularly. We can't understand why she has been overlooked for so long. We are looking for a foster or permanent home for Fluffy, somewhere she can have the time and space she needs to thrive.

PLEASE HELP US TO GIVE FLUFFY THE LIFE SHE DESERVES.

Wonderful Day at Rosehill Park

Looking back on our 4th Annual Dog Show at the Family Fun Day with the Friends of Rosehill Parks, we're proud of what a great day it was. The event brought together people, dogs and local supporters for a relaxed and friendly celebration of rescue dogs and the joy they bring to our lives.

The park was full of activity, with dogs of all shapes and sizes taking part in the classes. There were plenty of smiles and a real sense of community throughout the day. We were delighted to welcome the Mayoress of Sutton, who joined us with the Deputy Mayor for the Best Rescue class. It was a touching part of the event, as every dog in that class had overcome a difficult start in life. Each one received a 1st place rosette, a small way to recognise how far they had come with the love and care of their owners. Bounty and Vega took home the title of Mr and Mrs Rosehill Park and won over everyone they met.

We're very grateful to everyone who came along, took part and supported us. The day helped raise awareness of rescue dogs and the ongoing work we do to give them a better life.

Thank you to the Friends of Rosehill Parks for their continued partnership and to our local community for helping make the day such a success.

Our Life-Saving ICU Unit

Thanks to your amazing support, our ICU unit at the Jilava Medical Centre has already helped save countless animals' lives. It's been in constant use during our neuter campaigns, giving sick and recovering dogs and cats the extra care they need.
This vital piece of equipment was bought with donations from our 10th Anniversary Celebration in November 2023 and we couldn't be more grateful. Your generosity is making a real difference to our ability to offer medical care.

A Run for Rescues

At the beginning of September, our wonderful adopters Coral and Ethan took part in the Great North Run and the Junior North Run. They completed the races with determination and raised an incredible £540 for Paws2Rescue. A huge thank you to Coral, Ethan, Luna and their family for their amazing effort and support. What an achievement and what a difference their fundraising will make for the dogs we help.

Helping Andreea Help the Dogs

Andreea, one of our rescuers in Romania, dedicates herself to saving as many dogs as she can. She traps strays and takes them to medical care and safety, giving them a chance at a better life.

Her transport cages, however, have been used so much that some have been chewed and others have broken doors. We wanted to help her replace them so she can continue her vital work. Large crates cost around £70 and the smaller plastic ones £40 to £50, and we hoped to buy as many as would fit in her car.

Thanks to the generosity of our our followers on social media, we were able to replace her old crates and also provide cat and dog food. Every penny makes a huge difference. Andreea gives so much to the animals, yet asks for so little, and we are proud to be able to support her in her work.

Did you know we run regular auctions?

Our auctions are a vital part of our fundraising and a brilliant way to pick up a bargain while supporting our work. By joining our auction site on Facebook you can bid on a wide variety of items knowing that every penny raised goes directly towards helping animals in need. Join here: Paws2Rescue Auction Facebook Group

Like all charities, we understand that many people are struggling with the cost of living crisis. Times are difficult and it can feel harder than ever to spare money for donations. That is why our auctions are such a good option as you can treat yourself or buy a gift at a great price while knowing that what you spend is making a real difference. It means you get something useful or special and at the same time you are helping us continue our vital work. Win win!

You can help us achieve even more. Take part in our next auction by placing a bid, donating an item or simply sharing the page with others. Every contribution adds up and together we can provide vital support where it is most needed.

Standing with Our Friends in Ukraine

As the horror of war continues in Ukraine, we are doing all we can to support Irina and her team in conflict-torn Zaporizhzhia. On 24 September the shelter was shelled again. We cannot share images of the animals as the scenes are simply too distressing.

Irina's shelter sits on the front line of the fighting. Many people have now left the city, abandoning their dogs as they flee. With only a handful of helpers remaining, Irina continues to care for more than 500 animals in incredibly dangerous conditions. Her courage and commitment are nothing short of remarkable.

Our neuter campaigns in Ukraine continue, because even in such dark times, every act of compassion matters. Irina and her team remind us daily what true bravery and dedication look like.

Romania

While we were in Iasi, we spent time at the public shelter walking dogs. With over 1,500 animals, most will never leave their cages. It is always a heartbreaking experience, and we leave with heavy hearts, wishing we could take every dog home. We also provide food for the strays, which is why our neutering programmes are so important. By helping to prevent more unwanted litters, we hope to reduce the suffering these dogs face.

Peru

Did you know that we run a successful education programme in Romania and Peru, teaching children to treat animals with kindness and respect? We're delighted to share that the programme is thriving, helping to inspire the next generation to care for animals and understand their needs.

By encouraging empathy and compassion from a young age, we're building a brighter future for both people and animals in Peru.

Good news!

Teddy

Like so many of the dogs we meet, it's hard to understand how a gentle, friendly boy like Teddy ended up shut down and miserable, his days numbered in the cold of a kill shelter. We couldn't leave him there and now he's living the good life in Cornwall, king of the sofa with the loving family he always deserved. This is what it's all about – saving lives, one dog at a time.

Changing Attitudes in Romania

What do our Paws2Rescue vet scholars do before university starts again? Our Gold Heart scholar, Anca, has been spending her time volunteering with Protectia Animalelor CJ Ilfov, an incredible organisation working tirelessly in the community to promote animal welfare and drive real change across Romania.
Anca recently joined their team at the Bucharest International Air Show, where pilots from across Europe came together to raise awareness about stray dogs and help shift public attitudes. It was a fantastic example of teamwork and compassion in action.
Romania has long had a difficult reputation for its treatment of animals, but we're beginning to see the tide turn. More and more people are showing kindness and compassion towards stray dogs, and with the help of young people like Anca, there's real hope for lasting change.

Adopted and Adored

Foxy was found in a public kill shelter with her friend Taz. Both were elderly, confused and frightened, lying on the cold stone floor with no idea what they had done wrong. Their deafness gave them no peace from the noise and fear around them.
Foxy needed surgery for a hernia while still in care. It was a big operation for a twelve-year-old dog but she pulled through and began to recover with the help of those who cared for her. The messages of support that came in for her were full of kindness and she seemed to respond to the love sent her way.
When she was strong enough, Foxy moved into her forever home, a calm and comfortable place where she could finally rest. She joined a few other senior dogs, each now enjoying warmth, good food and soft beds. Her best friend turned out to be an unlikely one, a tortoise. When he sees her in the garden, he comes over to sit beside her, and they lie together in the sunshine. Foxy doesn't mind that he isn't like her, she just enjoys his company.
Taz has also found happiness in his own home, safe and loved. As for Foxy, she has everything she ever needed. From a cold shelter floor to a garden shared with her tortoise friend, she is living the life she always deserved.

Chance: From Despair to Hope

Alone, scared and starving, Chance suffered abuse at the hands of humans. He was terrified and in desperate need of care. We could not ignore his pain, and he was taken straight to a vet clinic near Bucharest, where he began the fight for his life. Back then, Chance weighed just 3.5kg and was too ill to eat or drink. The vet feared he might not survive 48 hours. But thanks to the generosity of our supporters, who donated to cover his treatment, Chance pulled through.

He began his new life with Melisa, in our Sanctuary surrounded by the love Melisa and the team give to all our dogs. In a few weeks, Chance has gone from an abandoned, starving pup to a healthy, happy dog, chilling on a swing chair!

We are over the moon for Chance and grateful to everyone who made his recovery possible. He truly is a miracle boy.

Thank you!
